

We want to help people close to our

We want to help with dementia.

A Therapeutic Companion.

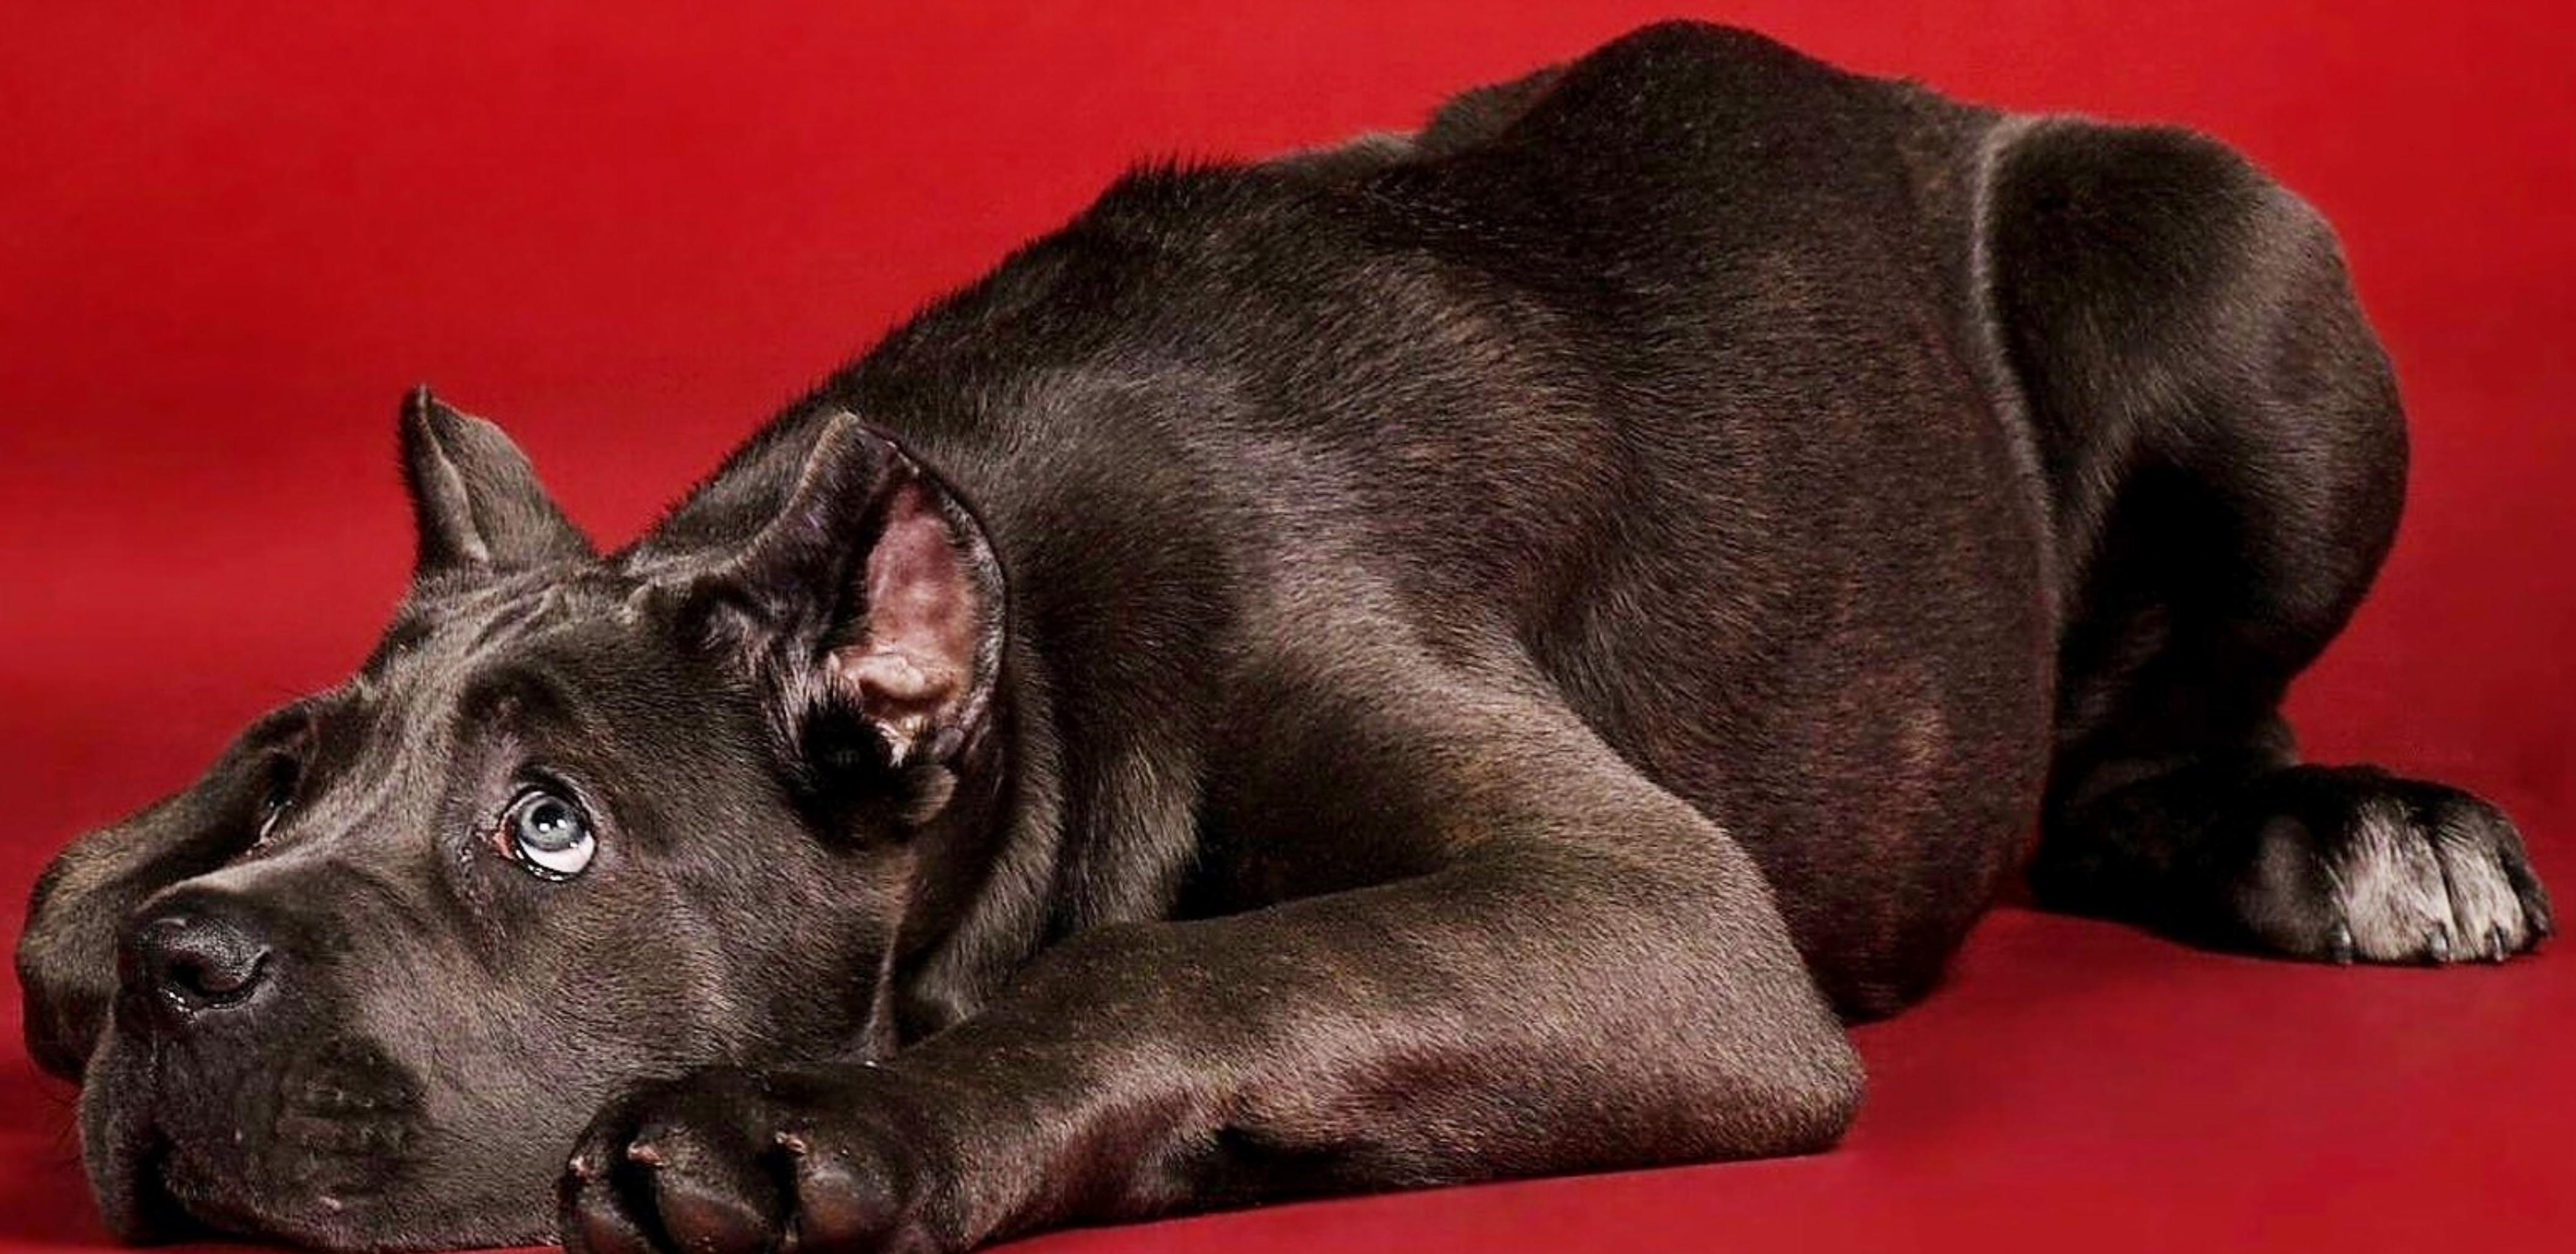

Dementia takes a toll.

Ollie is a social robot.

fun

cute

Ollie is a social robot.

loving comforting

Keepon

Paro

$30,000

$6,000

$30,000

$6,000

$500

A Therapeutic Companion.

Ollie is designed to be used at home.

Cambridge Rehabilitation
& Nursing Center

German Center
For Extended Care

MIT AgeLab

We chose the dimensions of a baby.

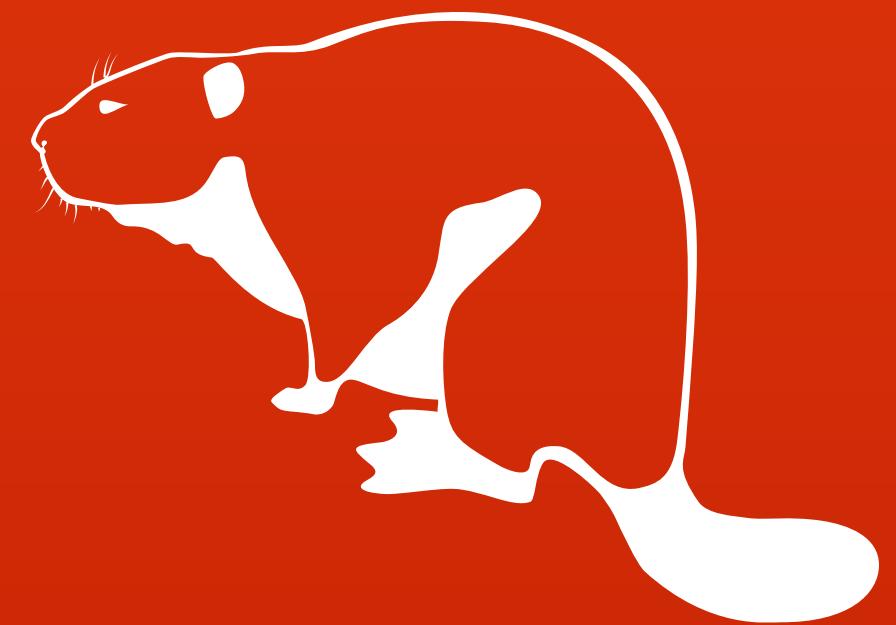

We chose the dimensions of a baby.
It makes users want to care for it.

What animal should it be?

What animal should it be?

Olivia Hoblitzelle

Best Selling Author, "A Couple's Journey Through Alzheimer's"

“Something to hold and stroke . . . that would be a great comfort.”

Olivia Hoblitzelle

Best Selling Author, “A Couple’s Journey Through Alzheimer’s”

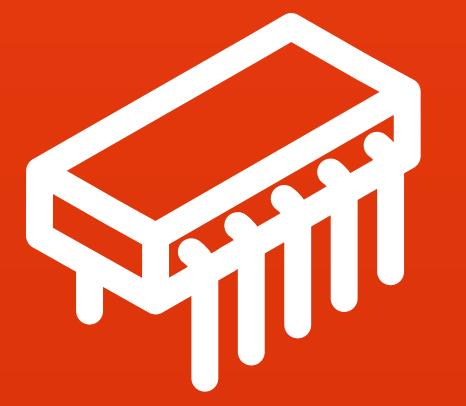

Teresa
Caregiver

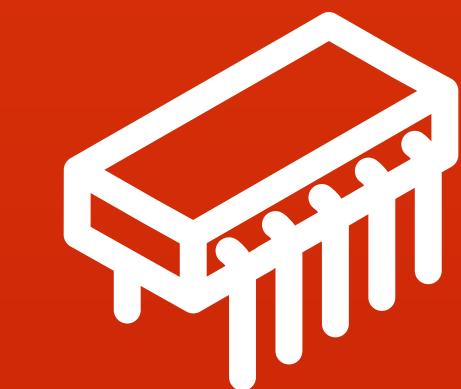

A woman with shoulder-length red hair and bangs, wearing glasses and a pink ribbed turtleneck sweater, is smiling and holding a small, dark-colored dog. She is standing in what appears to be a hallway or room with a red door and framed pictures on the wall.

“Here is something that she can love, and it’s going to give her love back.”

Teresa
Caregiver

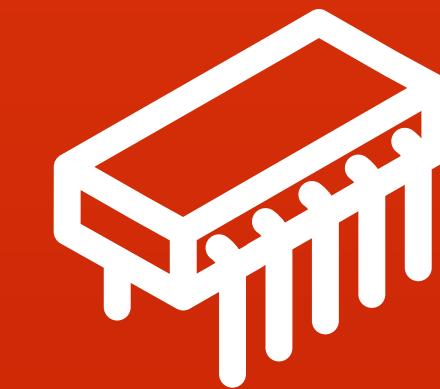

10101

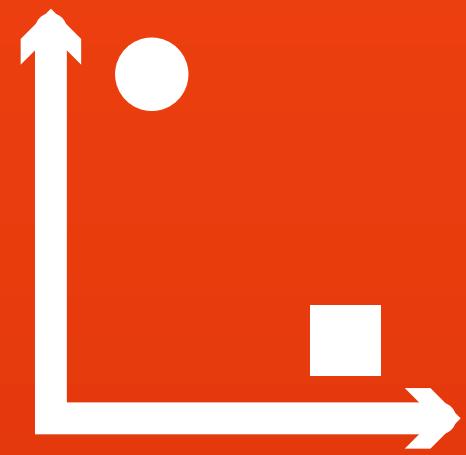

Hardware

101010

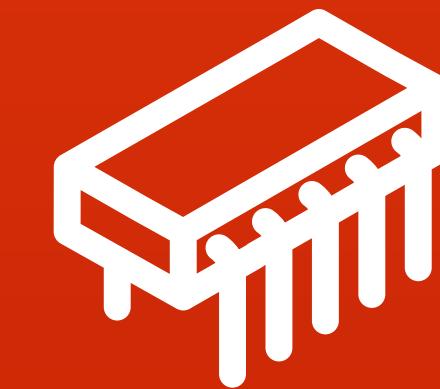

Input/Output

Hardware

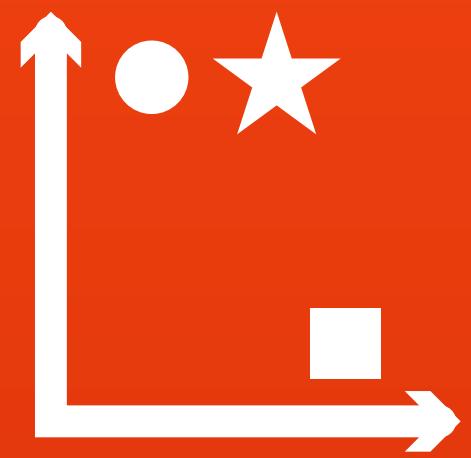

101010

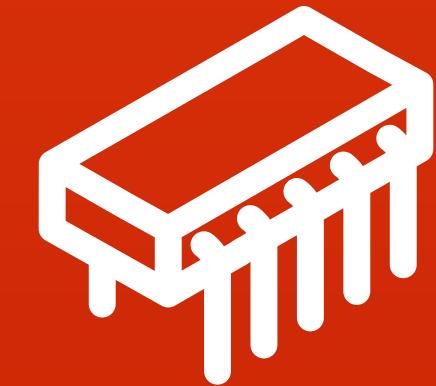

Interpretation

Input/Output

Hardware

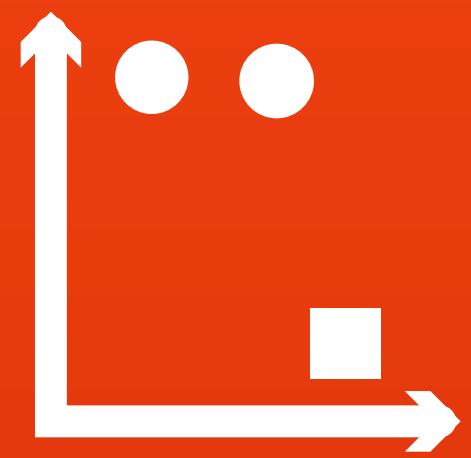

101010

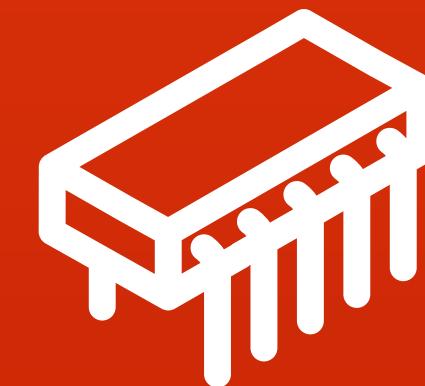

Interpretation

Input/Output

Hardware

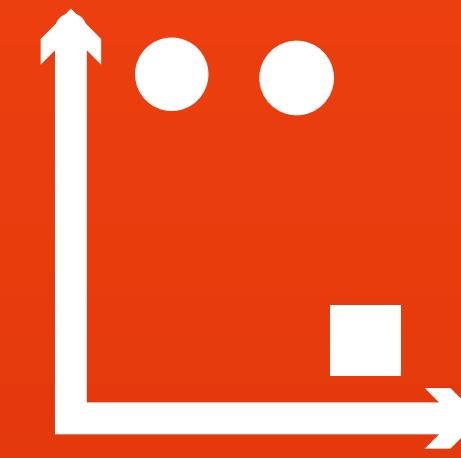

101010

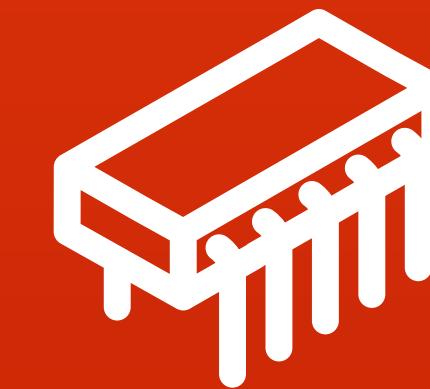

Interpretation

Input/Output

Hardware

101010

Brain

Interpretation

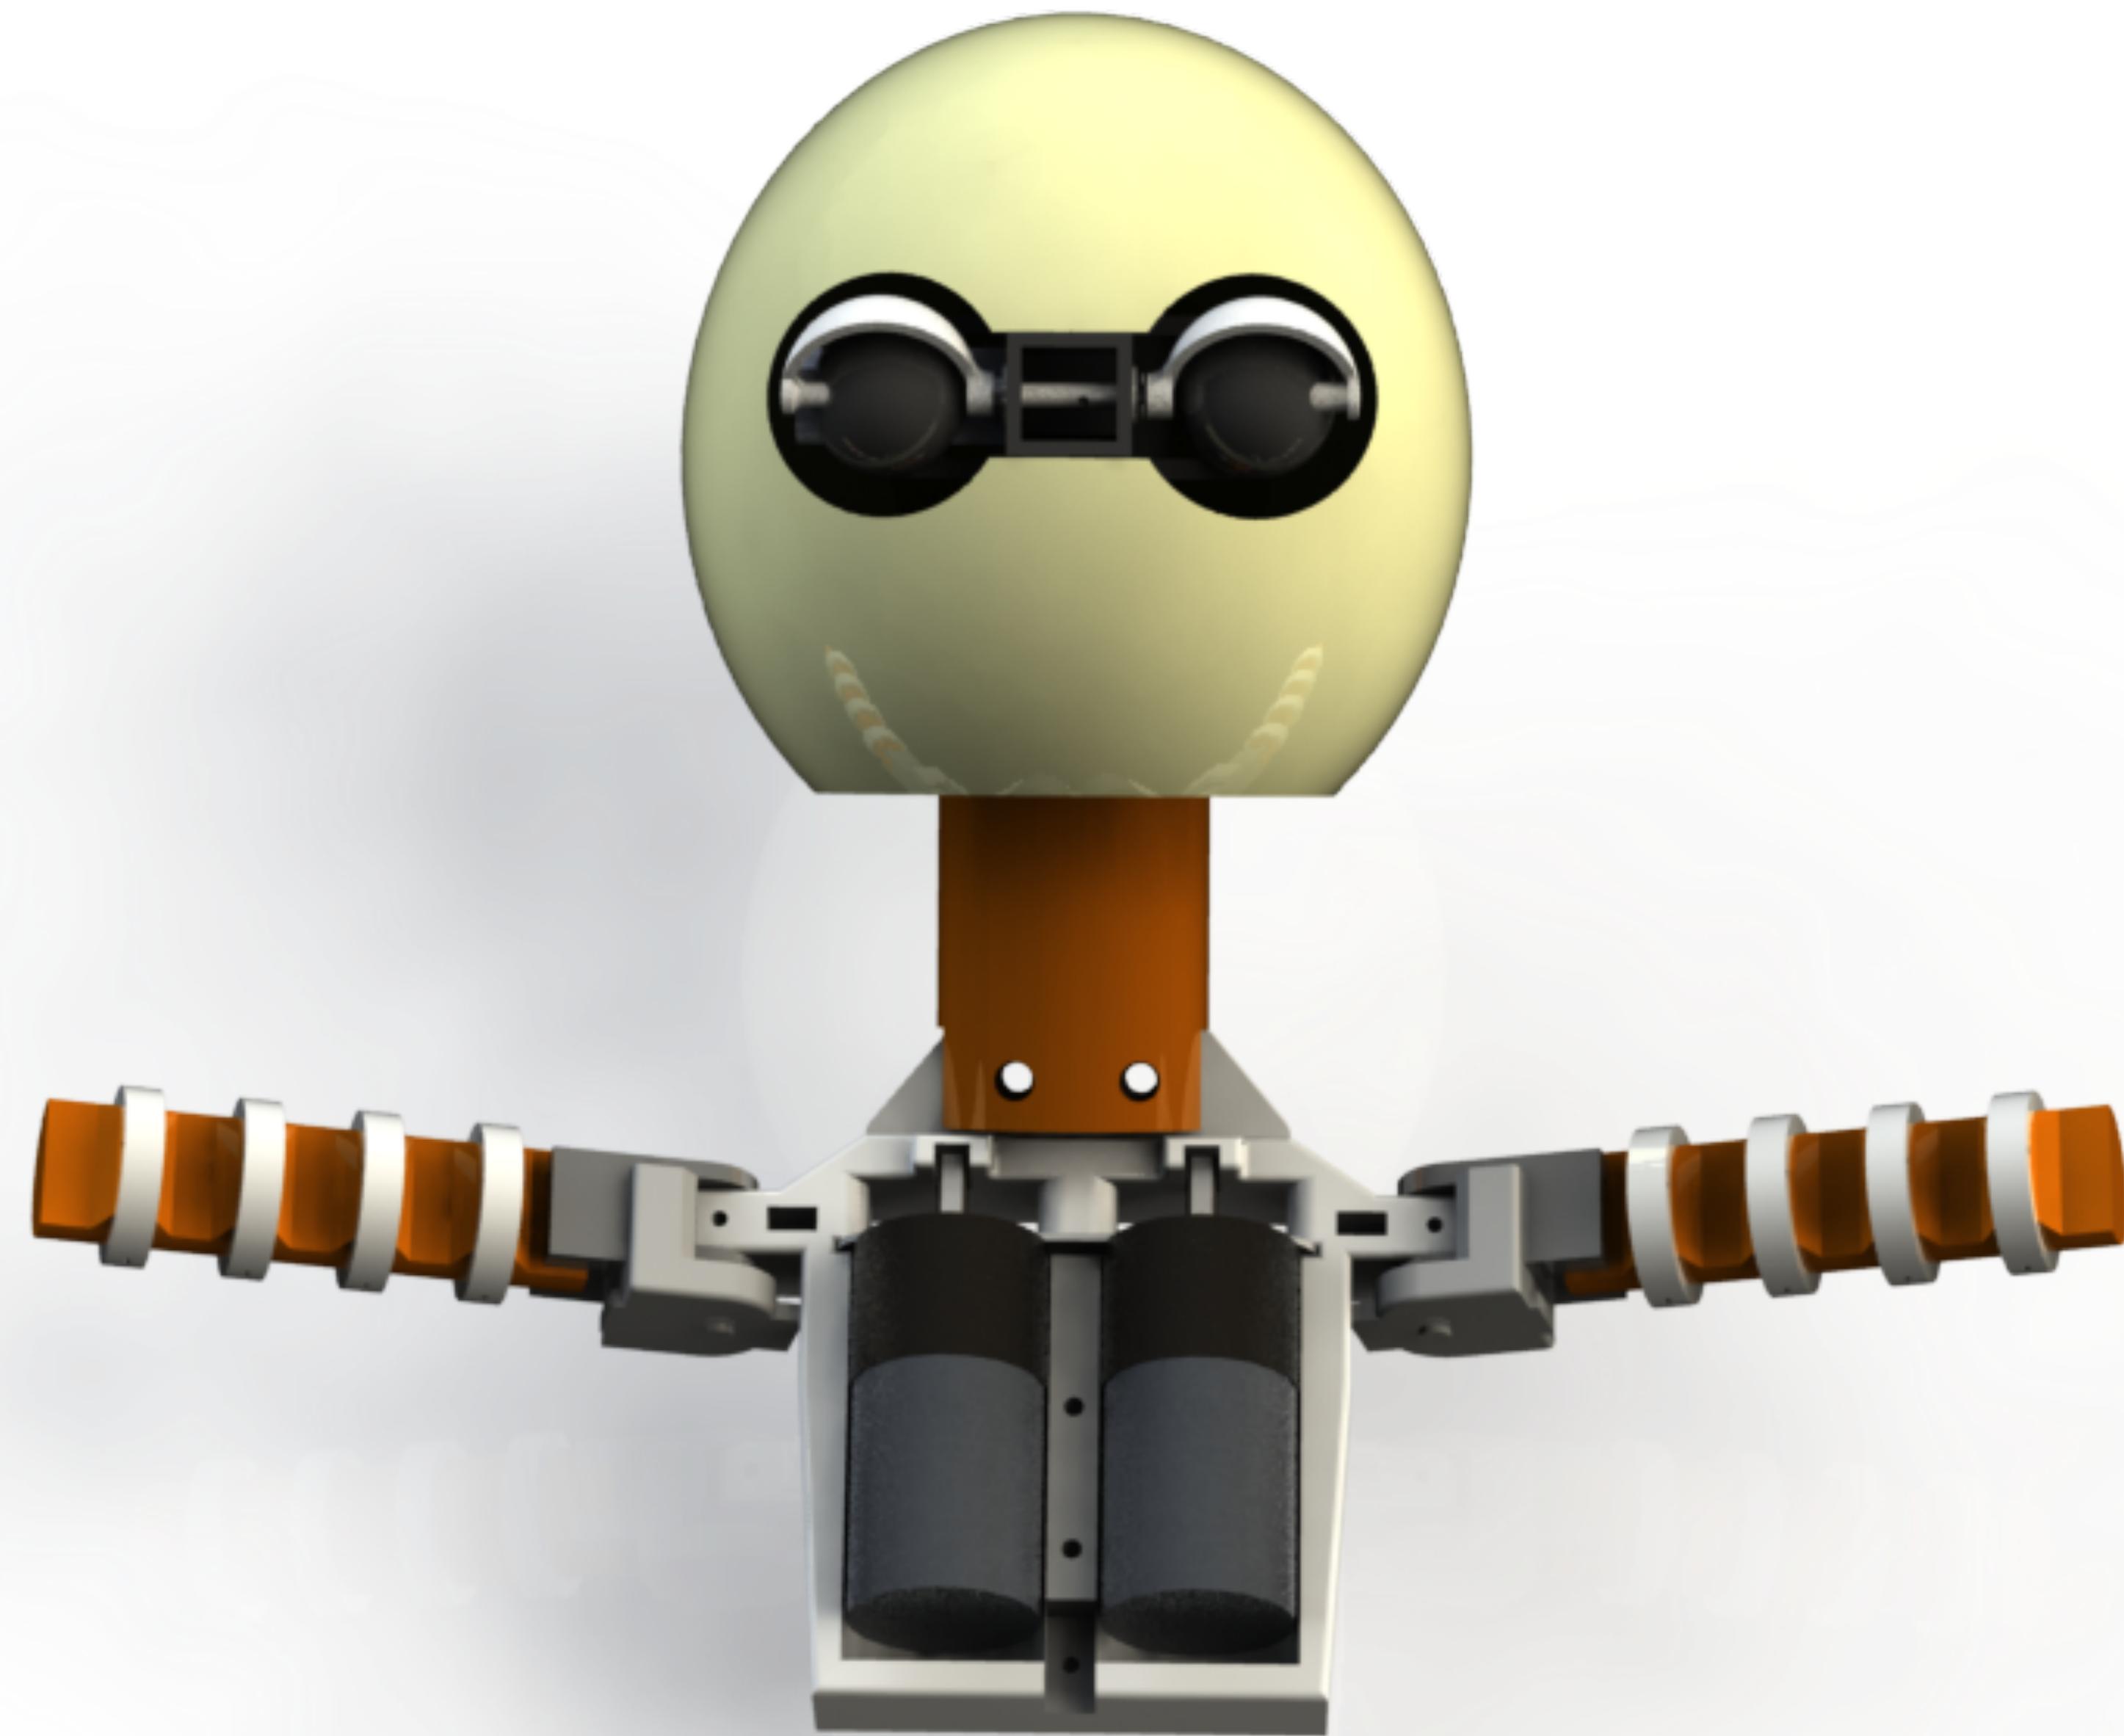

Input/Output

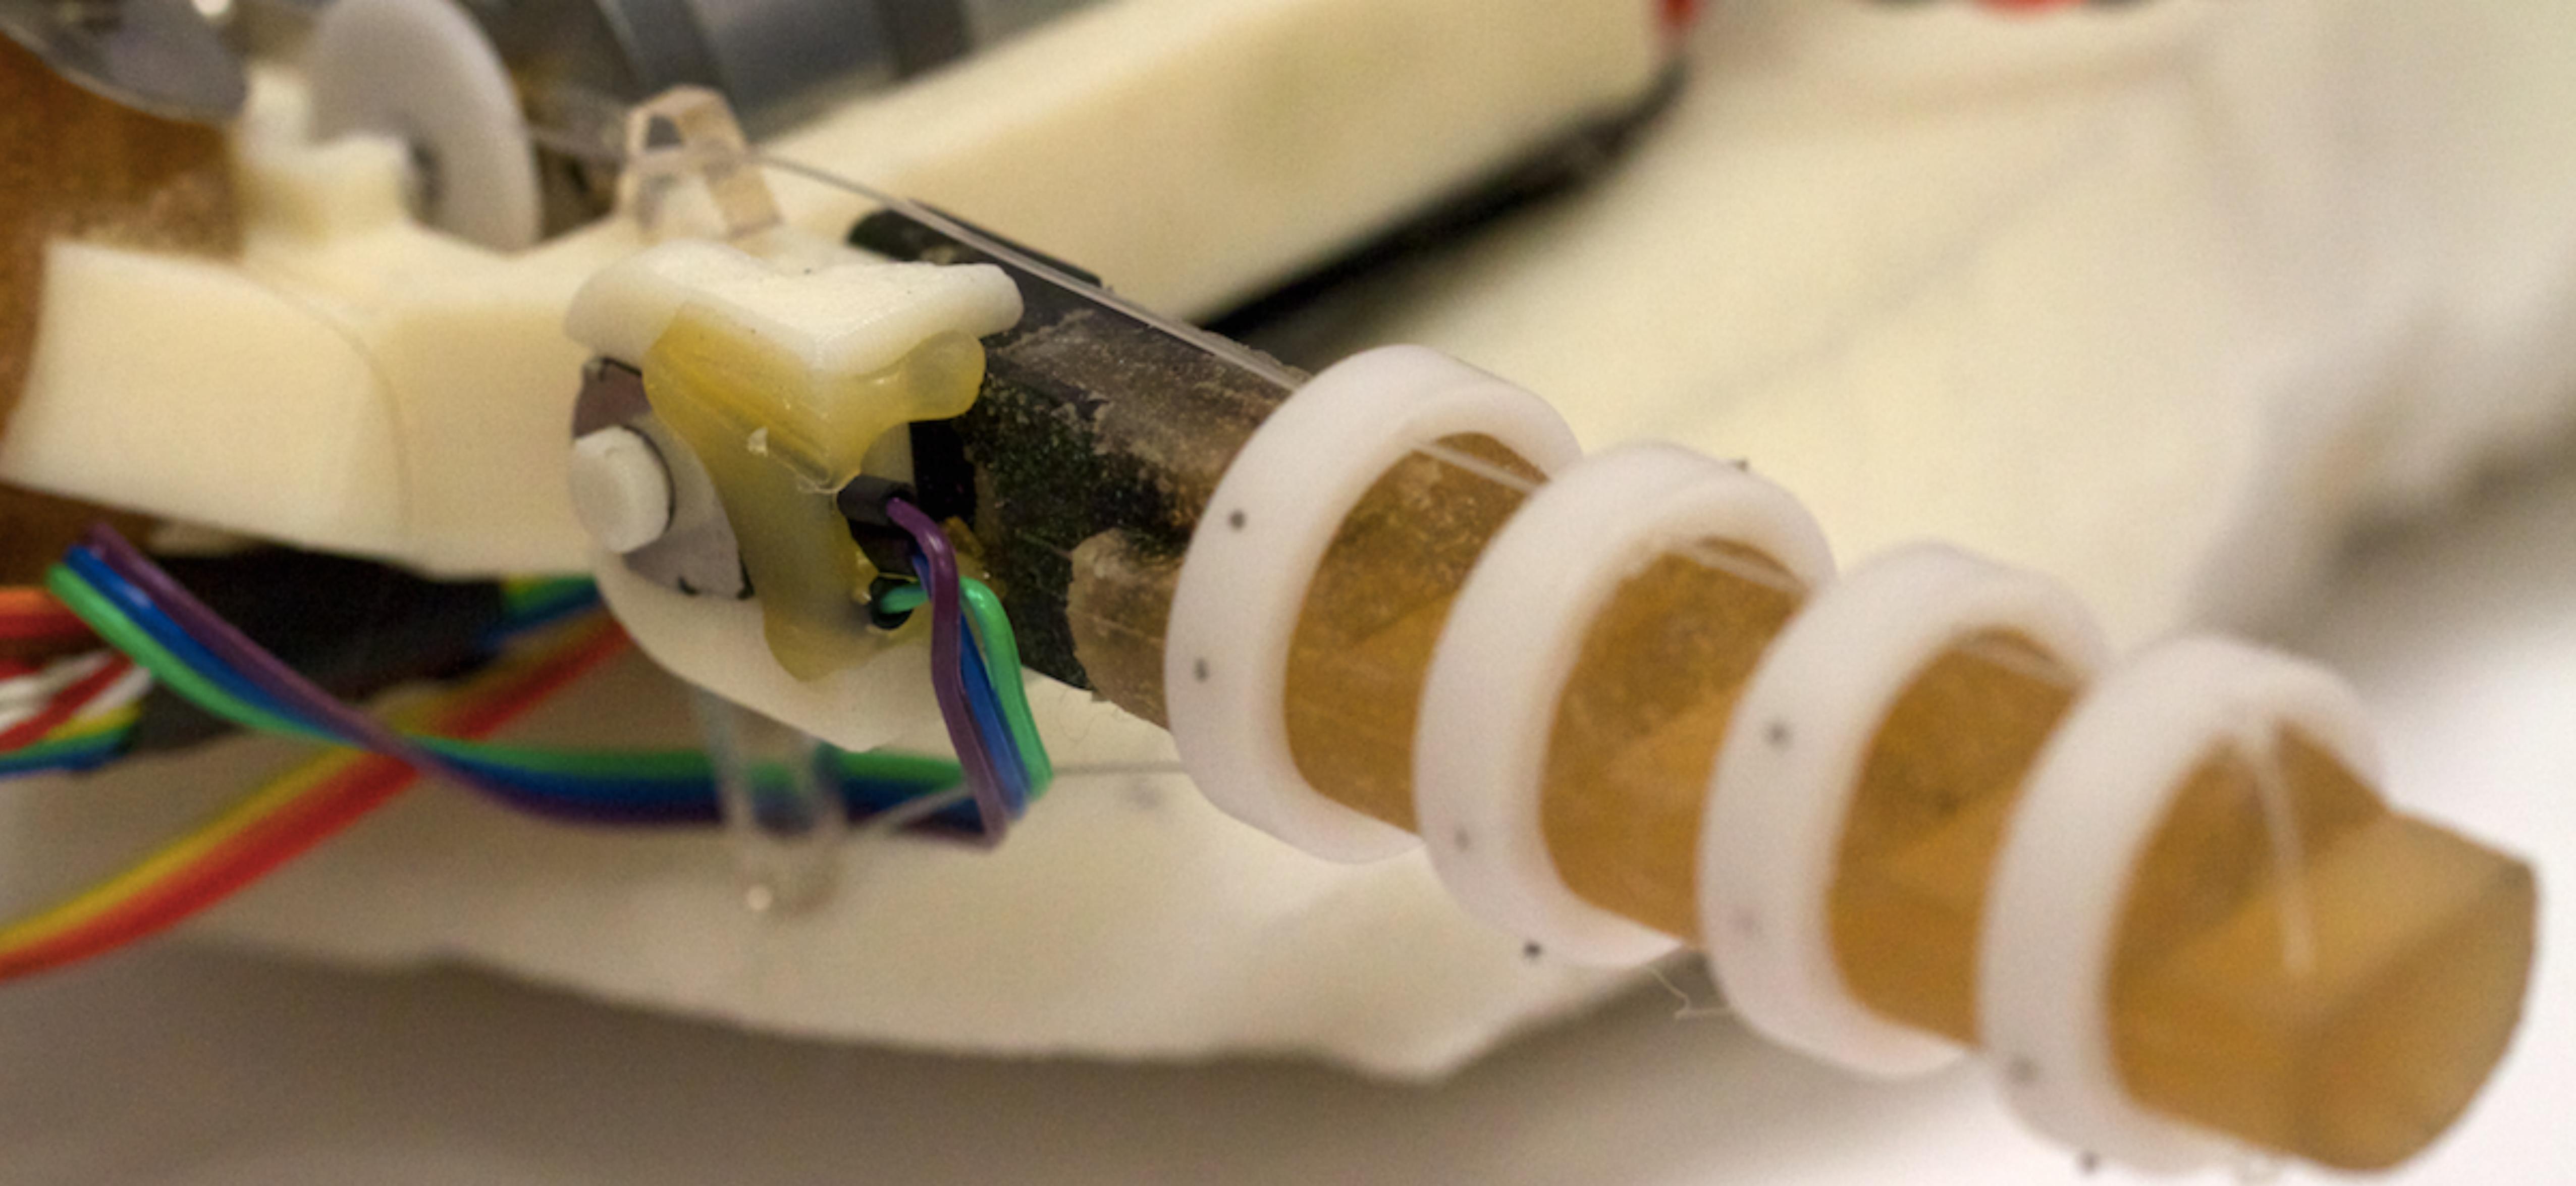

Hardware

We think Ollie has BIG potential.

$203,000,000,000 spent on care for our loved ones.

This will rise to

$1,200,000,000,000

by 2050.

Over 5,200,000 people have dementia.

1%

$30,000

$6,000

$500

Manufacturing Cost

STANFORD CENTER ON LONGEVITY

Annual return of 44%.

A Therapeutic Companion.

We think he's utterly adorable.

otterly

We think he's ~~utterly~~ adorable.

Thank You

Thank You

Thank You

Thank You

Thank You

Thank You

Thank You

Thank You